

Columbia Summer

ART HISTORY IN PARIS

Explore the architectural theories and museums that have shaped Paris from the Enlightenment to the present day.

This program offers a comprehensive exploration of the architects, architectural theories, and museums, while also contributing to the broader development of modern architecture and museum culture. Weekly site visits will include iconic buildings, and diverse museums, including special access.

Scan to learn about the program!

Scan to learn about the Global Learning Scholarship (GLS)!

Students should have experience in or completed coursework in Art History and/or Architecture

