

Columbia Summer
CREATIVE WRITING IN PARIS

Push yourself forward in your creative work and explore the craft of writing in the inspiring city of Paris!

This four-week intensive writing program invites students to see how their work is always in dialogue with the places they pass through and how creativity might be a tool they can use in settings they may not have previously considered. The courses will rely on site visits and excursions to guide this exploration.

Scan to learn about the program!

Scan to learn about the Global Learning Scholarship (GLS)!

Students should have experience in creative writing

