Intensive Elementary Italian

Monday: 9:00-12:00, 1:00-4:00

Wednesday: 1:00-4:00

Thursday: 12:30-4:30

Course book:

New Italian Espresso 1, Italian course for English speakers (Alma Edizioni, 2014) -- textbook and workbook

Course objectives:

This intensive first year course (which is the equivalent of Italian 1101/1102 at Columbia), is open to those with no previous training in Italian, and prepares students to move into intermediate Italian.

The course provides students with a foundation in the four language skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing. Students are expected to participate actively in class discussions and activities, and to practice as often as possible outside of the classroom as well. Language acquisition will be achieved not only through exercises and conversation, but also through songs, audio clips, pictures, food, and games. Upon successful completion of the course, students should be able to:

- provide basic information in Italian about themselves, their interests, their daily activities;
- participate in a conversation on everyday topics using the major time frames of present and past;
- read short edited texts, understand the main ideas, and pick out important information from authentic texts (e.g. menus, signs, train schedules, etc.)
- write short compositions on familiar topics;
- identify basic cultural rituals and practices in the context of their occurrence.

Course expectations:

Regular attendance and active participation are necessities in this course, owing especially to its accelerated pace. Classes will be held in Italian, and students are strongly discouraged from using English during class. Students will be asked not to utilize any screens during our lessons (phones, tablets, laptops, etc.), as they detract from our collective engagement and attention. Additionally, the use of online translators is prohibited and will be considered plagiarism.

I am happy to meet with students not only to discuss questions related to the course, but also to help mitigate any questions or issues regarding your experience studying abroad -- I encourage all of my students to come chat with me outside of class!

Students with disabilities should register with ODS, and should also be in touch with me for any additional accommodations.
