

Global Engagement Summer 2025 Columbia-Led Programs

Earn Columbia credits through Columbia faculty-taught courses and administered programs

Columbia Summer Global Core in Athens

Discover Greek history, culture, society, and environment through cross-disciplinary study, field visits, and hands-on public humanities work.

Columbia Summer in Venice

Immerse yourself academically and culturally on Italy's most enchanting island by taking Italian language, culture, film, and art history courses.

Modern and Classical Japanese in Kyoto

Take intensive Modern or Classical Japanese language courses enriched with interactive instruction and extracurricular activities.

Columbia Summer Practicum at the University of Cambridge GLOBES

Gain hands-on experience carrying out psychological and behavioral science research.

Columbia Summer in Art History & Architecture

Explore the architectural theories and museums that have shaped Paris' history and arts.

Columbia Summer in Accelerated Intermediate French

Continue your study of the French language while taking full advantage of the immersive experience in Paris.

Columbia Summer in Creative Writing

Push yourself forward in your creative work and explore the craft of writing in Paris.

Columbia Summer Practicum in Global Neuroscience

Travel to Paris to study the field of neuroscience and develop a network of international researchers.

Columbia Summer in Paris

Choose from the French Immersion or English Track and explore the paradoxes of French and Francophone history and culture.

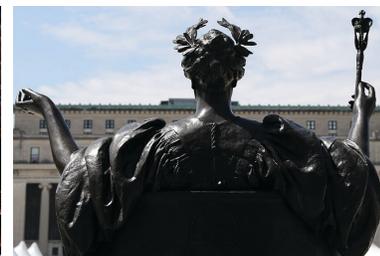

Columbia Summer Core in Berlin

Columbia undergraduates learn how to look and listen more deeply by simultaneously taking Art Humanities and Music Humanities.

Columbia Summer Core in Paris

Columbia undergraduates have the opportunity of a rich exchange in one of the foundational artistic cities of Western culture.

Global Learning Scholarship GLS

Columbia undergraduates may apply for the Global Learning Scholarship (GLS) to partially defray fees for a summer global learning opportunity.

We regularly revise our Summer Columbia-Led opportunities, so please check out our website for the most up-to-date information.

Be on the lookout for new programs with the Global Columbia Collaboratory!

Scan the QR Code for more information! →

